

HRCav CODE OF CONDUCT

In all equestrian sports the horse must be considered paramount. The well being of the horse shall be above the demands of owners, riders, organisers, sponsors or officials. In the interests of the horse, the fitness and competence of the Rider shall be regarded as essential.

The HRCav recognizes the principles covered in the Vic Sport Code of Conduct and works to ensure:

- inclusion of every person regardless of their gender or sexual orientation
- inclusion of every person regardless of their race, culture or religion
- opportunities for people of all abilities to participate in the sport and develop to their full potential
- that respect is shown towards others, the club and the broader community
- a safe and inclusive environment for all
- elimination of violent and abusive behaviour
- protection of persons involved in the sport from sexual harassment or intimidation
- protection of persons involved in the sport from other forms of harassment

This Code and Association rules apply to all Club sanctioned events and activities and extends to cover unacceptable behavior on the part of individual members which has the potential to be injurious to the reputation of the Association and negatively affect the safety and enjoyment of the sport by other members.

BREACHES OF CODE OF CONDUCT

The HRCav Committee may impose sanctions where they are satisfied that there is proof that a breach of the Code of Conduct has occurred. Breaches of the Code of Conduct include, but are not limited to, the following:
